In reply refer to:
Charge No. TB06-1026
Dickson vs.
Stratford, Bd. of Ed.

Ms. Lea E. Dickson
34 Henry Avenue
Stratford, Connecticut

Dear Ms. Dickson:

We have received your communication alleging unlawful employment practices in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. Under Section 706(b) of Title VII this Commission is unable to accept jurisdiction in your case until the matter has been deferred for 60 days to the Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities

90 Washington Street
Hartford, Connecticut 06115

We are sending a copy of your correspondence to the above agency. Please contact that agency immediately to be certain that all its requirements have been met for commencing proceedings in your case.

Unless this Commission hears from you to the contrary, we will automatically assert jurisdiction over your charge on the 61st day following receipt of your charge by the State Agency. Likewise, if the state should terminate its proceedings earlier, or if the time limit set forth in the statute for the Commission to assert jurisdiction is about to expire, we will at that time assert jurisdiction.

Should you have any questions at this time, please call or write.

Sincerely,
