The Connecticut Women's Basketball Hall of Fame seeks to honor those who, in a superlative fashion, have contributed to the enhancement of women's basketball in Connecticut—either through participation, service, support, or achievement.

Perfection, Achievement, Effort, Dedication—these hallmarks of excellence reflect the lives and careers of our Hall of Famers. Excellence speaks with a voice of its own. In those elected to the Hall of Fame, we are privileged to hear that voice. The Connecticut Women's Basketball Hall of Famers exemplify the finest achievements in the world of sports.

This organization, at that time, was the only one of its kind in the country and was founded in 1987 by Ann V. Fariss, PhD of Stratford, Athletic Director, University of Bridgeport; Louise Albrecht of Fairfield, Associate Athletic Director Emeritus, Southern Connecticut State University; Anthony Candido of Milford, Women's Basketball Official; *Brenda Reilly, PhD of Newington, Associate Athletic Director, Central Connecticut State University; and Linda Wooster of Bethany, Professor Emeritus, Quinnipiac University.
